LITTLE CLIPPINGS.

About 1,500 Pikes are gathered together at the northeast corner of Mono Lake, holding their annual festival. This consists in feasting, drinking, horse-racing and going through the war-dance.

A band of sheep was recently corralled near Vallecito, in two corrals, with a gateway between, and during the night became scared, and rushing together, ninety-six sheep were smothered to death.

A San Bernardino lad named Criswell undertook to lead a fractious cow the other day, when his arm became entangled in the rope and he was dragged some distance, producing a double fracture of the right leg.

By some flaw in the deeds, the people of Sumner, Kern county, have had no title to their lots. Trouble was expected, but the C. P. R. R. authorities took immediate steps to perfect the titles without further charge.

A son-in-law of Mr. Gr. dley, of Artois, Los Angeles, was loading a wagon with grain lately. He stopped suddenly, threw his hands to his head and exclaimed: "What's that? I'm blind!" and fell to the ground, dead.

Last Sunday a monster Jew fish, weighing 500 pounds, was caught on a hook at South Santa Monica wharf by a man named Collins. He was pulled off the wharf into the sea by the fish, and nearly drowned before he was rescued by a sailor.

A muscular and energetic negro revivalist is at work in Little Rock. "I seen a good many old tuffs in dis house," he said, in one of his meetings, "an I want em to come up ter de mourner's bench right now. Dey's gotter come. De Lord dono say I wish you would do anything, but says you's got to do it. Firmness is religion. De rock of ages is made outen flint. Mr. Johnson, said the preacher, addressing a sinner, "come up an' put yer head on dis bench. I've played kyards wid yer, but you's got ter reform. Come on, I tells you, is yer comin'?" "No I isn't," said Mr. Johnson. Den I'll fetch yer. You's been standin' off de preachers long 'nough." The preacher left the pulpit, advanced to where Mr. Johnson was standing, and caught him by the collar. The two men began struggling, and confusion prevailed; but Mr. Johnson was dragged to the bench.

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, SOZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and prevents decay from youth to old age. The acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted with SOZODONT, and this pure tooth-wash protects the dental surfaces by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for SOZODONT. sept-1m-daw

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES A. GARFIELD,

OF OHIO,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

OF NEW YORK,

CAMPAIGN PAPERS.

For one dollar we will send the Daily Gazette until November 5th, and the Weekly for fifty cents.

STRONG DEMOCRATIC ENDORSEMENT.

"I will tell you whom I think the Republicans should nominate, and whom I consider their strongest man; he is a TRUE MAN, A MAN OF PRINCIPLE, AN HONEST MAN, AND WOULD MAKE A GOOD PRESIDENT FOR US ALL. Personally I consider him the BEST MAN you could nominate. I refer to General JAMES A. GARFIELD, of Ohio."—Thomas A. Hendricks, 1876.

"I have been his devoted friend for many years; and I am resolved that I never will believe that he does not deserve the affection that I have bestowed upon him. If he would carry the principles which regulate his private life into his public conduct, HE WOULD MAKE THE BEST CHIEF MAGISTRATE THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD."—Jesse Black.

In the midst of the organized carnival of corruption which has been going on now for so many weary months and years at Washington, it is really satisfactory to catch glimpses now and then of HONESTY FOR HONESTY'S SAKE, and without consideration of party. General GARFIELD, of Ohio, is a Republican of Republicans, but it is his simple duty, which we gladly pay to him, to admit that HE HAS DONE MORE THAN ANY OTHER SINGLE MEMBER OF HIS PARTY, during the late session of Congress, to show that it is not impossible for a man to act with a Congressional majority, and yet to KEEP HIS SELF-RESPECT AND THE RESPECT OF HONEST MEN. [New York World, before Garfield was a candidate.]

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

Several parties are trying to create the impression that the new school house is unsafe. We do not remember a building big enough to swing a cat in, ever being put up in Reno, that some one did not think was unsafe. Kimball's hall, the Reform Club hall, the Theatre, the Catholic Seminary, all were feared by somebody. Either a disappointed contractor or rival to the architect, or someone whose business the new concern would hurt, became convinced that it would be equivalent to suicide for any one to go near the new building. There are timid ones who find fault with the roof of the new school house, although it is exactly like the one on Lee's stable, only smaller, with the exception that the props that were put up while it was being put together were not taken down. Some of the "experts" who have seen it, not knowing that it was a self supporting roof supposed that these props were the things that the roof rested on, and imagine it to be unsafe. The centre walls also are reported to be shaky, and although there is not a crack in the plaster, nor a squeak in the door, it is said that the building has sunk 3 1/2 inches. The School Trustees might make some test that would satisfy every body, and it should be done. It is cruel to let women fret about the safety of their children at school, and people who start such stories should know that there is some foundation for them.

A WORD IN SEASON.

It is talked that an independent ticket is to be put in the field. That some of the defeated Republican candidates will be named for the Senate, Legislature, County Commissioner, etc., and that the Democratic convention that meets Saturday will endorse them. There are times when duty to country conflicts with duty to party. In great crises a man who has gone into a convention and pledged himself by all the oaths and promises binding among politicians to abide by its decision, may be justified in breaking his pledges when the result is against him. If a great and immediate danger threatened, and some man thought that he was the only one that could avert it, he might with good grace offer his services to the people on an independent ticket. But if his only recommendation is that he wants the office, or that some of his friends advise him to run, he commits political suicide, and unless he is very old and thinks this is his last chance, or very stupid, and thinks he will be forgotten before another election, or very obtuse, and cannot see that the country can run very well without him, he cannot afford to enter into any such scheme.

THE CONVENTION'S WORK.

The ticket nominated by the Republican County Convention is one of the very best ever presented. This was to have been expected from the character of the men composing the Convention, who were nearly all intelligent citizens and large taxpayers, and it was reasonable to surmise that the candidates would be men well qualified to discharge the duties of their respective stations, fair representatives of the principles of the party, and calculated to be worthy of the suffrages of the voters.—Morning Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Some interesting and novel fact is sure to be brought out at every meeting of the S. F. Academy of Sciences, just as there is always one good joke in Punch. It having been stated at the last meeting of the Society that the clams all around the shores of the bay were dying in large numbers from the refuse of coal oil works at Alameda Point, B. B. Redding said that trout taken from a mountain stream could not live to be carried two miles in a new cedar pail, because of the cedar oil penetrating the water, but that when these fish were placed in tin pails for transportation they could be carried any distance safely. It was explained that oil floating on the surface of the water prevents the aeration of the fluid, thus causing the death of the fish.

The Bulletin says: "The resolutions extending the freedom of the city to President Hayes have been handsomely engraved on a gold plate six inches by 3 1/2 inches, which is enclosed in a silver envelope bearing the President's address on the front, and the figure of the city seal on the back. The plate contains the resolutions handsomely engraved, with the seal of the city in the centre of the heading, and the names of the Supervisors and the Clerk of the Board at the foot. On the left hand upper corner is a sheaf of grain and upon the right hand upper corner grape vine and fruit. On the left hand lower corner is the American eagle and on the right hand lower corner is a grizzly bear."

The Carson Times is busily engaged in showing up Boynton Carlisle of the Genoa Courier as a corrupt journalist and professional blackmailer. There are no laurels to be won in firing at a dead duck. The Times should let Carlisle drop. He is sure to go to the bottom ultimately, although the gases of corruption may for a while keep him bubbling at the surface.

In an Arizona Court-room Lawyer Jones hit Justice Reilly in the eye because his Honor tried to eject him. The next time Jones appeared in Court Reilly fined him $35 and committed him to jail for one day—for contempt in striking him. A local paper, after giving a glowing account of the affair, says: "Jones is let out, and to-day they'll go at it again."

Says the New York Mining News: "The destruction of half a million dollars' worth of property in Eureka, Nev., by fire, is a calamity which would have irretrievably ruined an Eastern community of equal importance. In the West, however, disasters of this kind tend to stimulate the sufferer, and develop a remarkable fertility of resource."

That was a long horseback ride from Texas to New York, which J. P. Benjamin has completed—2,400 miles. He started May 10th and finished August 27th. He wanted to see the country.

A Essentially Candidate.

Captain (?) John S. Gilson is expected to present his name to the Democratic County Convention, which meets on Saturday, and ask for the nomination for Justice of the Peace. Mr. Gilson is certainly the worst man that could possibly be picked out in this whole county. He is utterly untrustworthy and degraded. In his business transactions he has shown the most shameful rascality. He will lie on the slightest temptation, and there are reasons for believing that he should be in the penitentiary for worse deeds. He is the impersonation of a sneak. His face is putty and his eye evasive. He is a Uriah Heep with the meanness multiplied by five. For the sake of Washoe's character as a county, it is to be hoped this man may not be nominated for any office of honor or trust.

UPDIKE REBUKED.

The "Clerical Philanthropist" Comments Rather Severely Upon That "Over-Zealous" Officer's "Extraordinary" Behaviour.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Had not officer Updike himself thus called me into print, I should not have mentioned his name in print, nor have referred to the unofficer-like as well as unmanly and illegal discharge of his duty upon the occasion of the late fire at Chinatown. First of all, let me deny the statement made in the paper that if I "followed him round he would put me on the brakes;" officer Updike knew his man too well to try that with me or any other citizen who knows his rights as such and will maintain them at all hazards, even though they be threatened by some irresponsible individual "dressed in a little brief authority."

My attention was called to officer Updike's extraordinary behavior by a severe struggle going on between him and a very intelligent looking Chinaman, whom the officer absolutely dragged to the brakes of the engine. I thought, perhaps, the officer was excited, and so I passed on. Returning by the same way, I met the officer dragging several other Chinese to the engine. Behind him were two or three young lads of about seventeen or eighteen, who were urging on the officer. These young lads thought it was real fun, for one called out to others to come and see the sport. Thenceforth I noticed the actions of this over-officious officer, and saw him ranging the multitude, as one in search of prey; and when he found an unfortunate Chinaman, the manner in which he dragged him to the engine was a shame to our intelligent and free community and to the name of an American citizen.

Thinking to temper the action of this over-zealous officer, I spoke to him, and, as every lover of right and liberty should do, entered my protest at his unofficer-like action. The officer asked me who I was. My reply was: "A citizen with a citizen's rights." Tapping his disgraced official badge with his hand, he told me that he was an officer, and that if he was obstructed in his duty he should arrest me. I informed him that I should not obstruct him, but would see that he did his duty as a man and a citizen. I did keep my eye on him and noticed that he did not, thenceforth, rush through the people as a lion or tiger in search of prey.

Later on Mr. McIntosh called for help on the brakes, and others and myself gladly took a turn, as I have often done in the past, and shall not be afraid to do in the future. Just here I would inform officer Updike that I am less afraid of work of any kind than I am of acting a part which shall disgrace me as an intelligent lover of the institutions and liberties of the land that has adopted me as one of its sons, shall disgrace me as a man among men, as a gentleman and a Christian.

Let not officer Updike, for one moment, think that he can "bluff" or frighten me in the discharge of my duty, wherever this may be; the poet tells us that he is thrice armed who is in the right.

In conclusion, I am content to be called a philanthropist; the English of this word signifies a "lover of man." The worst thing that I can wish the officer is that he might remain, as he evidently is, the victim of class and race prejudice, which exhibits itself when the opportunity occurs. I trust he himself may become a "lover of man," and thus he will execute his duties more efficiently, with more manly dignity, and with more pleasant to his fellow citizens and conscientious self-approval. A word to the official: Do not aim to be "popular." Be right. I am very truly yours and the officer's to command,

G. F. G. MORGAN,
Pastor Reno Cong'l Church.

Planets and Pleiades.

Jupiter and Saturn are now conspicuous objects in the evening sky. At 9 o'clock both planets may be seen in the east well above the horizon. Some of Jupiter's moons should be easily detected by the aid of a good field or opera glass. Both Jupiter and Saturn may be easily recognized by their size and the steadiness of their light, glowing with a steadfast brightness, as do all the planets. The return of the Pleiades marks the arrival of the season when the leaves wither and fall.

GEORGE TROMLITZ.

His Famous a Sharper—Wanted East and West.

George Tromlitz, who is well known in Reno and Carson, has become famous as a confidence operator. The Police News has published the following advertisement, accompanied by a due woodcut of the insinuating George:

"George Tromlitz, alias Dr. George von Tromlitz, chirpologist, confidence man and dead-beat, wanted East and West."

The Appeal gives the following account of him: "The hero of this sketch is now 'working' the country east of the Rocky Mountains, in company with a woman named Emma Latham. Prior to coming to this coast he operated successfully as a confidence man in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, for a while. After he found that matters were beginning to grow a little hot for him, he left for the Pacific Coast. He spent two years in San Francisco and vicinity. In Oakland he married a beautiful young lady, whom he deserted after the birth of a child, and made his way East again. His career in this city is well known, and need not be rehearsed. After leaving Reno, he assumed the name of 'Dr. Geo. von Tromlitz,' representing himself as a graduate of a famous German university. At Elko he formed the acquaintance of a lady, who became so fascinated with his smooth manners that she assumed his alias and followed him, to her sorrow, until he deserted her at Green River."

BY TELEGRAPH.

The President's Reception in California. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Governor Perkins and the reception committee from San Francisco and Oakland, met the Presidential party at Blue Canyon this morning and accompanied them to Sacramento, when, after a brief reception at the depot, the train proceeded on its way. At Benicia and other points en route, great crowds gathered to greet the party. At half past eleven the party reached the station at Sixteenth street, Oakland, and were escorted to the Court House, where the Mayor welcomed the President in a brief address, to which the President responded. After the speeches the procession formed and the order of march was taken up. Oakland is gaily decorated with flags and evergreens. There is an immense crowd in the streets and great enthusiasm.

COUNTY PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the principles as enunciated by the National and State Republican Platforms.

Resolved, That we recognize in James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur, the Republican nominees for President and Vice President, pre-eminence worth and ability. Their past record, patriotism and services for the assurance of their fitness for the positions to which they have been nominated, and that they should and will endeavor by united work to insure their re-election.

Resolved, That in R. M. Daggett the Republican party has given to the people of Nevada an able and industrious Representative, and in Wm. H. Brents an honest and fearless Judge, and we will endeavor by united work to insure their re-election.

Resolved, That the principles of our government can only be upheld and perpetuated by a full, free and fair ballot, and that to secure and protect the right of suffrage to every citizen it is our duty to discountenance and condemn any violation or attempt at interference with this sacred right, and that every lawful measure should be invoked to secure this right to every citizen.

Resolved, That the view of the fact that the Republican party has ever been true to its trusts in the past, our national prosperity and welfare demand a continuation of its rule.

Resolved, That it is the first duty of every Republican to give his support only to men whom we are assured will guard and protect the interests of the people, and advance and promote the educational, moral, and material, agricultural, mining and other industrial pursuits of our people.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Washoe County favor a change in the office of United States Senator, and that our Representatives and Senators be instructed to vote as a unit on all Senatorial questions, and endeavor to secure the election of a man whose name is in Nevada.

And there is also an order prayed for in said complaint directing the payment of said sum of money due with interest thereon from the money realized from the sale of said property with costs and attorney's fees as in said mortgage provided, in the sum of one hundred dollars, and a decree to be entered in said action, arising from the sale of said property, that such remainder be paid into Court to await the order of the Court for reasons set out in the complaint and for general relief; and that which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court at Reno, in said County. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, said action will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

MISCELLANEOUS.
REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.
Following is the text of the resolutions adopted by the Republican National Convention on Saturday, June 5, 1880:
Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where four per cent bonds were eagerly sought at a premium. Under its administration railways have increased from $1,000,000 in 1860 to more than $200,000,000 in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,100,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $200,000,000 less than our imports in 1860, were $300,000,000 more than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $20,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $80,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $100,000,000 to less than $60,000,000. All the industry of the country has revived; labor is in demand; wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this conviction is made for their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire the party:

ENUMERATION OF PRINCIPLES.
First. We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved should be preserved. That the disunion, now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted unimpaired to future generations, and that the order established and the credit acquired should never be lost. That the duties which should be performed by the nation should be steadily encouraged.

Second. The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a mere compact. Out of the confederated States it made a sovereign nation, whose powers are limited to the nation, while others are retained by the States; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be defined by national and not by State tribunals.

Third. The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the national government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the people is the safeguard of the Republic, and the duty of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but by the average genius of all.

Fourth. The Constitution forbids Congress to make any law respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the separation of Church and State will be maintained while each State is exposed to the same particular domination. We therefore demand that the Constitution be so interpreted as to lay some prohibition upon the Legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

Fifth. We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1860, that the duties of the nation for the purpose of revenue should be so distributed as to favor American labor. That no further grant of the tariff should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery having perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territory. That wherever the protection accorded to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water-courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private corporations or individuals must cease. That the obligations to the men who preserved its integrity in the face of battle are undiminished by the lapse of fifteen years since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the national privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

SIXTH. Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States, and the treaty-making power, that the Republic, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese a matter of grave concernment and under the laws of both States, we demand that the restriction of immigration by the enactment of such laws and treaties as will produce that result.

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican State Convention:

Re solved, That the platform of principles adopted by the National Republican Convention, at Chicago June last, deserves and receives the approval and hearty indorsement of all the Republicans of Nevada.
Resolved, That the horrid crimes that are coming in upon our shores to eat out our substance are destroying our country, impoverishing our mines, mining and laborers, debauching our youth, and making both men and women lower in the scale of humanity. This evil must and shall be stopped, and to this end we pledge the entire strength of the Republican party.
In the language of our great leader, we regard the immigration of Asiatics to the United States as little less than a servile invasion. Should the Commissioners now in negotiation with the Chinese Government fail to secure by the first of next January such modification of the Burlingame Treaty as will practically put an end to the influx of Chinese to this country, we demand that the treaty be promptly annulled, and such law enacted as will relieve us at once and forever of the Asiatic scourge now menacing the well-being of the Republic.
Resolved, That we must heartily indorse the general financial policy of the Republican party, which, in spite of every opposition on the part of the Democracy, has led to the resumption of specie payments, the raising of our national credit to a height never before known, and to the restoration of a national prosperity. But we also demand the coinage of silver dollars and other legal tender currency, by their device, and such law enacted as will relieve us at once and forever of the Asiatic scourge now menacing the well-being of the Republic.
